

Skyline Booster Club Privacy Policy

We are committed to safeguarding consumer privacy on our Web site and operate under the following set of strict privacy principles:

Personally identifiable information provided by our members (including home address, phone number, etc) is not disclosed, sold, or made public for any reason. Names and email addresses may be disclosed and members can request the information be removed from the website at anytime.

To remove information about you from our site, please contact info@skylineboosterclub.org.

Cookies

A "cookie" is a small text file containing a unique identification tag and is placed onto your computer by a website. Our cookie is temporarily stored onto your computer to enhance your viewing experience. No information is tracked or transmitted back to our site and we do not "remember" you during your next visit to our site. The cookie is automatically removed by your browser when you logout or close your browser.

If you choose to disable cookies we will attempt to provide a best-effort user experience.

External Links

Some of our pages provide links to third party websites. No member information is passed to the third party site; however some sites attempt to capture visitor information when you browse those sites. We are not able to alert you should another site attempt to gather information from your browser.

Security

Our Web site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control. We log your IP address during each visit to our website in our service log.

Minors

Children below the age of 18 require parental approval prior to submitting information or requests to our site. We do not knowingly solicit any personal information about minors nor market to minors.

Choice

You may "subscribe" or "opt-in" to receive communications (including Spartan Spirit Blasts) from us. To "unsubscribe", "opt-out", or terminate communications after the fact, send an email request to info@skylineboosterclub.org.

Contact Us

If you have questions or comments regarding our privacy policy, feel free to let us know by sending email to info@skylineboosterclub.org.

Our Privacy Policy is subject to change at any time without notice. It was last modified on 11/02/09. We will occasionally update our policy and post those updates here. You are responsible for visiting this page to review the current Privacy Policy.